

Free the Genie

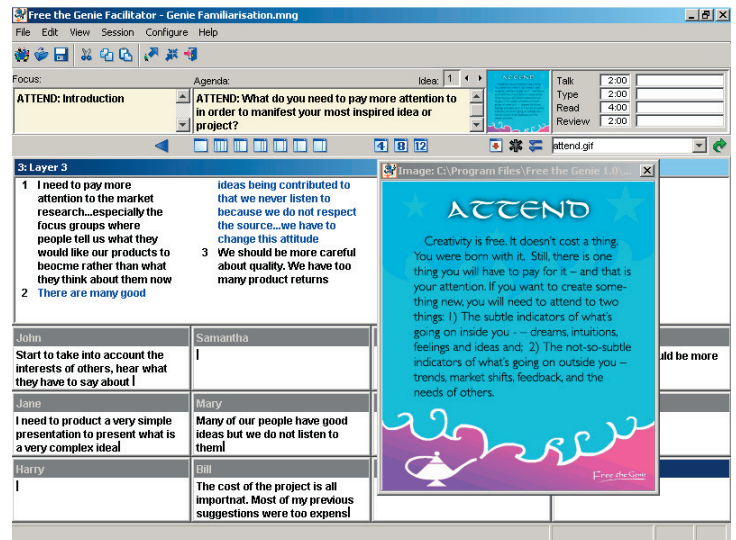

To the Vice-President of Innovation

Free the Genie for Teams is a suite of 50 fifteen-minute mini-meetings that helps business unlock hidden creative potential and kick-start the process of innovation. Your people meet on-line or face-to-face to reach rapid agreement about what to do.

Expert thinking and decision methods guide your discussions. Free the Genie will help you • Unlock the imagination • Inspire quantum leaps • Awaken creativity • Spark insights and ahas! • Unleash genius • Free up stuck energy • Boost motivation • Increase adaptability • Diffuse doubt and fear • Accelerate change • Enhance collaboration • Build momentum • Close the gap between thought and action.

50 workshops to unlock creativity

Free the Genie is organised into five suits: Attend, Intend, Suspend, Extend, and Connect. Each mini-meeting is a catalyst for change that helps you build flexibility for rapidly changing times. You also get 10 standard meetings for strategy, project planning and problem solving.

People say:

- You see what everyone has to say at the same time
- It's like watching everyone's minds work
- We feel more connected to each other
- The quieter people finally get their say!
- It's a chat room on steroids,
- The best ideas are adopted.
- I feel like I own the final decision
- It's fast and efficient
- Anyone can be a facilitator
- Meetings that waste time are a thing of the past
- You follow a decision process and stay on task.
